1. [REDACTED] telephoned to say that the Bureau of the Budget had requested information on the amount of money we spend on training for a special Congressional committee headed by Senator Humphrey. I told him that he should decline to furnish this on an unclassified basis without my specific approval until after I have had a chance to see what the figures look like.

2. [REDACTED] and I met with Mr. Dulles and General Cabell and obtained their approval on certain deductions which are to be incorporated in our advertisement for bids for the new building. I am also going to New York on Thursday, 30 October 1958, with H. S. to meet with Messrs. Harrison and Abramovitz, and Charlie Palmer and Len Hunter of Public Buildings Services to discuss this further. H
